Letter of Recommendation

To Whom It May Concern
Re: Covio (covio.agency)

Paris, France

Dear Sir or Madam,

We are writing to recommend Covio, who built our website, brand, and online marketing for Parquet Service Paris.

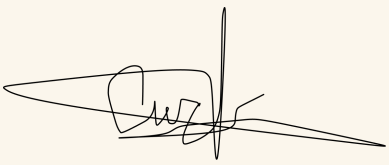
We sand, vitrify, and restore wood floors across Paris and the Île-de-France. Before working with Covio, we had no website and no presence in local search, and homeowners had no easy way to find us among the other floor companies in the area.

Covio built our brand and website, then created a set of local pages, one for each arrondissement and commune we serve, matched to how people actually search for these services in their area. They also handled the technical publishing and search visibility work involved.

Within a few weeks of launch, homeowners began finding us by neighborhood, and those searches turned into our first quotes and our first completed jobs.

We recommend Covio to any service business that needs branding, a website, and marketing handled together, especially one starting without an existing online presence.

Sincerely,



The Parquet Service Paris Team
